

“Caught on Camera” – Video Assignment Rubric

Students develop and utilize safe practice and skills in pre-production, production and post-production of a surveillance video and re-enactment of the same scene.

Curriculum expectations: A1, A2, A1.2, A2.2, B3, B3.2, D1, D1.2

Criteria:	Level 1 (50% - 59%)	Level 2 (60% - 69%)	Level 3 (70% - 79%)	Level 4 (80% - 100%)
Knowledge
Demonstrate an understanding of the core concepts, skills needed to produce a communications product	uses core concepts techniques and skills to produce a video with limited effectiveness.	uses core concepts techniques and skills to produce a video with some effectiveness.	uses core concepts techniques and skills to produce a video with considerable effectiveness	uses core concepts techniques and skills to produce a video with a high degree of effectiveness
Demonstrate an understanding of different equipment and software needed to perform communications technology operations and tasks	demonstrates limited understanding of equipment and software needed to perform operations and tasks.	demonstrates some understanding of equipment and software needed to perform operations and tasks.	demonstrates understanding of equipment and software needed to perform operations and tasks.	demonstrates thorough understanding of equipment and software needed to perform operations and tasks.
Application
The creation of a production demonstrates the application of creative and technical skills	Creation of the production demonstrates the application of limited creative and technical skills	Creation of the production demonstrates the application of some creative and technical skills	Creation of the production demonstrates the application of considerable creative and technical skills.	Creation of the production demonstrates the application of very effective creative and technical skills
Demonstrate an understanding and apply safe work practices when using equipment	Demonstrates limited use of safe work practices when using equipment	Demonstrates some use of safe work practices when using equipment	Demonstrates considerable use of safe work practices when using equipment	Demonstrates exemplary use of safe work practices when using equipment, and serves as a positive example for others to do the same.

